Be astounded by the incredible diversity of Botswana. Natural Selection's exceptional portfolio in this enchanting land of deserts, seasonal rivers, floodplains and woodlands comprises three camps in the phenomenal Khwai Private Reserve and one in the magnificent Okavango Delta (all shown on this page) plus three adjacent to the surreal Makgadikgadi Pans National Park and one on the banks of the ephemeral Boteti River (see pages 66-67). All Natural Selection properties possess their own individual charm and character, yet are united in their ability to offer unique experiences whilst playing a key role in conserving Africa's precious wildlife.
