PANAMA CITY STAY

4 days/3 nights

From $1159 per person twin share

Once home to explorers, pirates and entrepreneurs, Panama has changed its fortunes from Inca gold to eco tourism. Most famous for its canal, this small yet diverse country offers vibrant cities, relaxing beach resorts and an exceptional tropical climate. Venture inland – where the indigenous Emberá still paddle tradition dugout canoes - for misty cloud forest and volcanoes or stick to the coast for excellent snorkelling and diving. There are also hundreds of palm fringed islands off the coast, perfect for a romantic getaway.

INCLUSIONS

Meet and greet at Panama Airport, private return transfer airport/hotel, 3 nights hotel accommodation on a bed & breakfast basis, Canal tour with partial transit with shared ground transportation, full day Aguas Clares Visitor Centre & City Tour incl. lunch.

HIGHLIGHTS

- The Panama Canal, a splendid feat of engineering
- Stroll beautiful and lively Casco Viejo
- See Panama Viejo, sacked by pirates in the 1600s
- Gateway to beaches, cloud forest and volcanoes
